

119K

Total Bookings

37.08%

Cancellation Rate

25.99M

Actual Revenue

16.73M

Potential Lost Revenue

Total Bookings by Booking Status

Total Bookings by hotel and Booking Status

Booking Status ● Cancelled ● Confirmed

Year Slicer

2015

2016

2017

Cancellation Rate by Market Segment

Cancellation Rate by Hotel Type

Cancellation Rate by Booking Window

Cancellation rate by Customer Type

Hotel Type

City Hotel	Resort Hotel
------------	--------------

42.71M

Total Revenue

25.99M

Actual Revenue

16.73M

Lost Revenue

Monthly Revenue Trend

Revenue by Country (Top 10)

Actual vs Lost Revenue

Year Slicer

2015

2016

2017

Key Business Recommendations

Recommendation	Finding	Action	Expected Impact
Lead Time Pricing Strategy	Bookings made 90+ days in advance cancel at 58%	Introduce non-refundable rate incentives for early bookings	Reduce long lead-time cancellations by 15-20%
City Hotel Deposit Policy	City Hotel cancellation rate (42%) vs Resort Hotel (28%)	Implement partial payment requirement at time of booking	Reduce City Hotel cancellation rate to Resort Hotel levels
Online TA Channel Strategy	Online Travel Agents drive highest volume but elevated cancellations	Negotiate stricter cancellation terms, incentivise direct bookings	Shift 10-15% of OTA bookings to direct channel
Seasonal Revenue Optimisation	Revenue peaks August-September, drops in winter	Dynamic pricing, premium rates peak season, promotions in low season	Increase off-season revenue by 10-15%

Revenue& Impact Summary

💡 Key Insight: The hotel is currently losing £12.9M in potential revenue annually due to cancellations. These 4 recommendations focus on pricing strategy, deposit policy, channel management, and seasonal optimization — with an estimated 20-30% revenue recovery within the first year of implementation.